DEBTORS’ MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO (I) EXTEND THE COVERAGE PERIOD OF CERTAIN INSURANCE POLICIES AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Genesis Global Holdco, LLC (“Holdco”) and its affiliated debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned jointly-administered cases (collectively, the “Debtors” and these cases, collectively, the “Chapter 11 Cases”), hereby submit this motion (the “Motion”), seeking entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”) (i) authorizing the Debtors, to the extent such authorization is required, to extend the coverage period of the Insurance Policies (as set forth in Exhibit C) from June 28, 2023 to December 28, 2023 and make any payments necessary for the extension of the coverage period (ii)

authorizing all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the proposed extension of the Insurance Policies and (iii) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper. In further support of this Motion, the Debtors rely on (i) the Declaration of Arianna Pretto-Sakmann in Support of the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to (I) Extend the Coverage Period of Certain Insurance Policies (II) Granting Related Relief, (the "Pretto-Sakmann Declaration"), attached to this Motion as Exhibit B, and respectfully represent as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order authorizing the Debtors, to the extent such authorization is required, to extend the coverage period of the Insurance Policies, which provide coverage to the Debtors, non-Debtor subsidiaries, its non-Debtor affiliate Genesis Global Trading, Inc. ("GGT") and their directors, officers and employees, by six months to December 28, 2023, which will permit the insureds covered under these policies to timely submit claims that may be raised against the Debtors or any Insureds under the Insurance Policies (as defined therein) following the current June 28, 2023 expiration date of the policies. The Debtors are likely unable to obtain new policies on commercially reasonable terms without certainty about the Debtors' post-emergence capital structure, the scope of potential releases provided under a plan of reorganization, and other uncertainties, while the Debtors have been able to secure an extension of the current terms of the policies for approximately $600,000. This relief makes particular sense where the Insurance Policies are "claims made" policies, such that failure to obtain an extension risks forfeiting claims against the Insurance Policies that have otherwise had no amounts paid out against their limits.

2. The Debtors believe that extending the coverage period is necessary and appropriate here to enable the current directors and officers to act on behalf of the estate without fear that they would be forced to make out-of-pocket payments in respect of claims that otherwise could be timely submitted under the Insurance Policies. To the extent that authorization is required, the Debtors respectfully submit that extending the policies is a sound exercise of their business judgment and seek entry of the Proposed Order attached as Exhibit A hereto, authorizing the Debtors to do so.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.). This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2) and the Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

4. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

5. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 363(b) of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004, (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

BACKGROUND

6. Holdco (together with the other Debtors and Holdco’s Non-Debtor Subsidiaries, the “Company”) and its non-Debtor affiliate GGT provide lending and borrowing, spot trading, derivatives and custody services for digital assets and fiat currency. The Debtors engage in lending, borrowing and certain trading services, while the Non-Debtor Subsidiaries engage in derivatives, custody and most of the Company’s trading services. Holdco is a sister company of GGT and 100% owned by DCG, the Debtors’ ultimate parent company.

7. On January 19, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses as debtors-in-possession under sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b), ECF No. 37. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases. On February 3, 2023, the Committee was appointed in these cases, ECF No. 55.

8. Additional information regarding the Debtors’ business, capital structure and the circumstances leading to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases is set forth in the Declaration of A. Derar Islim in Support of First Day Motions and in Compliance with Local Rule 1007-2, ECF No. 17, the Declaration of Paul Aronzon in Support of Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Motions and Applications in Compliance with Local Rule 1007-2, ECF No. 19, and the Declaration of Michael Leto in Support of First Day Motions and Applications in Compliance with Local Rule 1007-2, ECF No. 28 (collectively, the “First Day Declarations”).

9. On March 27, 2023, the former chief executive of Holdco, GGC and GGT filed a motion seeking relief from the automatic stay to access one of the Insurance Policies, ECF No. 165. At a hearing on April 26, 2023, the Court heard argument on and granted such lift stay motion, subject to certain modifications.

RELIEF REQUESTED

10. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of the Proposed Order (i) authorizing the Debtors, to the extent such authorization is required, to extend the coverage period of the Insurance Policies from June 28, 2023 to December 28, 2023 and make any payments necessary for the extension of the coverage period, (ii) authorizing all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the Insurance Policies and (iii) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

THE DEBTORS' DIRECTORS & OFFICERS AND ERRORS & OMISSIONS INSURANCE POLICIES

11. In connection with their business operations, the Debtors maintain several insurance policies from third-party insurance carriers which provide coverage for the Debtors, non-Debtor subsidiaries and GGT, as well as certain current and former directors, officers and employees of the Debtors. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. The insurance policies include a Directors & Officers liability policy and an Errors & Omissions liability policy with a shared limit and three excess coverage policies. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. A true and correct summary of the aforementioned insurance policies is attached hereto as Exhibit C (each policy an “Insurance Policy”, and together, the “Insurance Policies”). Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. Exhibit C also includes the corresponding insurance carriers (the “Insurance Carriers”), the annual premium amounts and dates of coverage. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. In 2022, the Debtors paid approximately $1.2 million in respect of annual premiums on the Insurance Policies. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. The Debtors’ Insurance Policies, which are claims made policies, currently expire by their terms on June 28, 2023 (the “Expiration Deadline”). Pretto-Sakmann at ¶ 4. For the avoidance of doubt, with this Motion the Debtors seek to extend solely the Insurance Policies set forth in in Exhibit C.

12. The Debtors seek to extend the Insurance Policies for up to six months to December 28, 2023 (the “Extended Expiration Deadline”) at the cost of $617,868.00 (the “Premium Payment[s]”). Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 4. The Debtors have determined that extending the Insurance Policies is a sound exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment, as it will extend the coverage available to both the Debtors and current directors and officers of the estate, who are currently navigating multiple actions and investigations against the Debtors and other parties-in-interest while continuing to discharge their duties. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 6. While the Debtors have considered the alternative of procuring new policies, it is unlikely that new policies could be purchased on commercially reasonable terms given the uncertainty of the precise shape of the Debtors' post-emergence capital structure, the terms of releases in an eventual plan of reorganization and other uncertainties. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 5. Accordingly, it is in the Debtors' best interest to instead extend the Insurance Policies to allow the Debtors to maintain their existing coverage, against which no claims have been paid, in place. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 5. The extension of the Insurance Policies will also allow the Debtors to submit additional claims for coverage on claims made after the Expiration Deadline. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 6. Given the circumstances of the Debtors' cases, it is conceivable if not likely that additional claims arise after the Expiration Deadline and that an extension of the Insurance Policies is necessary to provide directors, officers, employees and the Debtors the opportunity to have Losses (as defined in the Insurance Policies) compensated for such claims. Pretto-Sakmann Declaration at ¶ 6.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. Extension of the Insurance Policies Is Warranted Under Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code

13. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that “[t]he [debtor], after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Under section 363(b), courts require only that the debtor show “a good business reason” for such actions. See, e.g., Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Enron Corp. (In re Enron Corp.), 335 B.R. 22, 27-28 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (quoting Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983)); see also In re Adelpia Commc'ns Corp., No. 02-41729 (REG), 2003 WL 22316543, at *31 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 4, 2003). Moreover, “[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor’s conduct.” Comm. of Asbestos-Related Litigants v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (citation omitted); see also In re Tower Air, Inc., 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d Cir. 2005) (stating that “[o]vercoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task”).

14. To the extent required, the Debtors have satisfied the business judgment standard.² First, the coverage provided under the Insurance Policies is essential for preserving the value of the Debtors’ assets. Continued liability coverage for the Debtors’ directors and officers is necessary, especially in light of the uncertain regulatory landscape in which the Debtors operate, to ensure they have the flexibility to act on behalf of the Debtors’ estates as needed in response to claims against them without undue concern or interference with their continuing duties. Maintenance of insurance policies is also required by the operating guidelines established by the Office of the United States Trustee. See U.S. Dep’t of Justice Office of the United States Trustee, Region 2 – New York, Connecticut and Vermont, Operating Guidelines and Reporting Requirements for Debtors in Possession and Trustees, § 6 (rev. Dec. 27, 2019) (“Within fifteen (15) days of filing the petition, the debtor must provide the United States Trustee with proof of the insurance coverage required by these guidelines.”), https://www.justice.gov/ust-regions-r02/file/region_2_operating_guidelines.pdf/download. As set forth above, after consultation with their brokers and evaluation of their options at this stage in their cases, the Debtors believe an extension of the Expiration Deadline best serves these interests.

B. Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should be Authorized

15. The Debtors have sufficient funds to honor obligations in connection with the extension of the Insurance Policies in the ordinary course of business using cash on hand and/or expected cash flows from ongoing business operations. The Debtors believe there is minimal risk that check or wire transfer requests that this Court has not authorized will be inadvertently made. Thus, the Debtors request that this Court authorize all applicable financial institutions to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the extension of the Insurance Policies.

C. Satisfaction of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and 6004(h)

16. To implement the foregoing successfully, particularly given the upcoming Expiration Deadline, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

NOTICE

17. Notice of the Motion will be given by facsimile, electronic transmission, hand delivery or overnight mail to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2; (ii) counsel to the Committee; (iii) those creditors holding the fifty (50) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors' estates (on a consolidated basis); (iv) those creditors holding the five (5) largest secured claims against the Debtors' estates (on a consolidated basis); (v) the Insurance Carriers listed on Exhibit C and (vi) all others that are required to be noticed in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and Local Rule 2002-1. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

18. No prior motion for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other court.

[The remainder of this page is left intentionally blank]

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court (a) enter the Proposed Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A , and (b) grant such other and further relief as is just and proper.

DECLARATION OF ARIANNA PRETTO-SAKMANN IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO (I) EXTEND THE COVERAGE PERIOD OF CERTAIN INSURANCE POLICIES AND
(II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

I, Arianna Pretto-Sakmann, hereby declare that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief:

1. I am the Chief Legal Officer for the Debtors. I am generally familiar with the day-to-day operations and affairs of the Debtors.

2. I submit this declaration (the "Declaration") in support of the Motion² which is being filed simultaneously herewith.

3. Except as otherwise indicated herein, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge of the Debtors' Insurance Policies, or information supplied to me by members of the Debtors' management, other personnel and professional advisors regarding the Debtors' Insurance Policies, or my opinion based on my experience, knowledge and information concerning the Debtors' Insurance Policies. To the extent that the Debtors learn that any information provided herein is materially inaccurate, the Debtors will act promptly to notify the Court and other parties; however, I believe all information herein to be true to the best of my knowledge, information and belief. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors and, if called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently to the facts set forth herein.

4. The Debtors maintain Insurance Policies which provide coverage for the Debtors, non-Debtor subsidiaries and GGT, as well as certain current and former directors, officers and employees of the Debtors. In particular, these policies include a Directors & Officers Liability policy and an Errors & Omissions Liability policy with a shared limit and three excess coverage policies. Exhibit C to the Motion provides a true and correct summary of these Insurance Policies. In 2022, the Debtors paid approximately $1.2 million in respect of annual premiums on the Insurance Policies. The Debtors' Insurance Policies, which are claims made policies, currently expire by their terms on June 28, 2023. Based on a quote from the Debtors' broker, it is my understanding that the Debtors may extend the current expiration date of the Insurance Policies by six months, to December 28, 2023, for $617,868.00.

5. I believe that it is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment to extend the terms of the Insurance Policies by six months. First, it is my understanding that because certain issues, including the Debtors' post-emergence capital structure and the terms of releases in an eventual plan of reorganization are unresolved, the Debtors will not currently be able to obtain new insurance policies with similar coverage on commercially reasonable terms. Second, maintaining the Debtors' current Insurance Policies for an additional six months is the pragmatic choice, as the expiration of the Insurance Policies on the current expiration date will result in the unnecessary forfeiture of claims before any Insurance Policies have paid out.

6. Moreover, I believe that it is in the Debtors' best interest to maintain the Insurance Policies because it is likely that the ongoing actions and investigations against the Debtors and other parties-in-interest have or will give rise to claims covered by the Insurance Policies and that additional claims may accrue after the Expiration Deadline. Extending the Insurance Policies by six months will give directors, officers, employees and the Debtors adequate opportunity to have their Losses (as defined in the Insurance Policies) stemming from these actions and investigations compensated by the Insurance Policies and prevent these parties from paying out-of-pocket costs unnecessarily. Finally, maintaining the Insurance Policies will alleviate concerns the directors, officers, and employees may have about incurring costs and allow them to instead focus on discharging their duties to the estates.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
